

The "AGAPE" #32

(pre-advent time)

ST. MATTHEW LUTHERAN CHURCH, CALGARY AB
November 10, 2021 Anno Domini

Proclaiming the love of Jesus Christ in Bridgeland for 108 years!

A "BLOG-LIKE" NEWSLETTER FROM PASTOR ZEUCH

Hello dear SMLC Family!

I am hoping you are doing well with God's grace!

Last November 9th we commemorate the birth of Martin Chemnitz, pastor and confessor. Have you heard of him? He played an important role in the ongoing Reformation that had just started in Europe. He wrote the Formula of Concord, one of our confessional documents. Last month we talked about the Reformation and our focus was the Diet of Worms in 1521. Chemnitz was born a year after this imperial assembly. Luther was 38 back then.

Martin was a popular name in the Middle Ages, in honour of Martin of Tours, Bishop and confessor (born in modern-day Hungary in 316 AD). Luther was given the name Martin in honour of him when he was baptized, a day after his birth. Luther was born on November 10th (Happy 538th birthday, Martin!) and baptized on November 11, 1583. So, the "three Martins" were used by God to spread the truth of the Gospel of Christ in Europe in different times and circumstances. May we follow their example, their boldness, faith, and courage to stand up for our beliefs!

Spiritual one-liners: which ones do you agree with?

- * "Pray" is a four-letter word you can say anywhere - except in public schools.
- * Man's way leads to a hopeless end - God's way leads to an endless hope.
- * A lot of kneeling will keep you in good standing. |
- * He who kneels before God

Time Period 1522 – 1586

Who was he?

A theologian and the principal author of the 1577 Formula of Concord.

Did you know?

- He was a theologian and churchman with an almost encyclopedic knowledge of Scripture and the church fathers.
- When doctrinal disagreements broke out after Luther's death, he gave himself fully to the restoration of unity in the Lutheran Church.
- He also authored the four-volume Examination of the Council of Trent, in which he rigorously subjected the teachings of this Roman Catholic Council to the judgment of Scripture and the ancient church fathers.

can stand before anyone.

NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

1 - PRAYER REQUEST: Rev. Michael Keith is pastor at St. Matthew Lutheran Church in Stony Plain, AB. He holds a certificate in Grief and Death studies. He has written an article called "The journey through Grief" in the last edition of the Canadian Lutheran. If you are reading this newsletter on an electronic device, you may read his article by clicking HERE.

After he wrote this article, a tragedy struck his family! Please pray for the Keith family. Here is a Facebook post by Pastor Mike:

"Dear friends, many of you will have already heard of the tragic death in our family. Our beloved daughter Naomi died Wednesday afternoon.

My daughter was a beautiful person. Yet, she had many struggles. While there is a temptation for us to want to cover over the reality of what has happened and avoid a certain “stigma,” we will not do so. We don’t feel that honours her and her struggle. We will not use euphemisms. Naomi struggled with mental health issues. On Wednesday she took her life.

We are heartbroken. As a pastor I am supposed to have words to say. I know many may expect it of me at this time. However, I must confess, as a father I struggle to find words at this time. Please forgive me. Do not misunderstand my lack of words for a lack of faith. Even through tears we tell each other in our home often: Naomi rests with Jesus. It’s a simple phrase that brings profound comfort. I baptized her 17 years ago. Jesus took her in His hand then. He will not let go. He did not let go. Naomi rests with Jesus.

Romans 8:38–39: “For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

➤ SCHOLARSHIP FUND AVAILABLE!

Did you know that St. Matthew Lutheran Church has a scholarship fund set up for members of our congregation who wish to study at one of our seminaries to become a church worker (pastor, deacon or Director of Parish Services)?

Here is some information taken from the Concordia Seminary’s website:

How do I know Pastoral ministry is right for me?

The Holy Spirit can use an inner compulsion in your heart that God wants you to proclaim the Gospel and to shepherd a congregation of believers as the first step to lead you to be a pastor. Yet such inner compulsion may come from false motivations so it is hazardous to place great stock in such an “inner call.”

Since we believe that the Holy Spirit works through other people and other physical means, a better indicator that God wants you to “aspire” to be a pastor is the objective assessment by other believers that you have the gifts from God for this “noble task” (1 Tim. 3:1).

Affirmation by other believers should be supplemented by your own self-evaluation to recognize that you can serve the need of God’s people and the humility to realize that you need to be taught the skills to effectively carry out the tasks of the ministry.

Ultimately, you will want those entrusted with this task to affirm that you have the necessary skills and welcome a formal call from God through a particular congregation of believers to serve them with the Word and Sacrament as a servant of Christ.

Pastoral Studies

While Concordia's primary focus is to prepare men for the pastoral ministry of Lutheran Church-Canada and beyond, we do offer a number of other programs and sessional workshops aimed at equipping followers of Christ to be leaders in their church community.

Men who wish to become a Pastor in a Lutheran-Church Congregation need to complete our four-year Master of Divinity program and meet all the requirements of a Theological Diploma. These two programs are offered concurrently and are generally completed by candidates in a four-year program of studies.

Diaconal Studies

Concordia Lutheran Seminary has a program designed to prepare men and women to serve as deacons in congregations of Lutheran Church-Canada. Deacons are individuals who work alongside pastors and support them in the work of caring for God's people. While deacons do not preach or administer the sacraments, they serve in countless other ways, including teaching adults, children and youth, visitation, evangelism, and, where their talents allow, congregational music.

Those who wish to become deacons in a congregation of Lutheran Church-Canada must complete the two-year Graduate Diploma in Parish Services and meet all the requirements of a Vocational Certificate in Diaconal Ministry that certifies them for diaconal ministry in LCC.

Open Studies

Concordia also offers learning opportunities for students who do not wish to enter a degree program. "Open Studies" permits students to take credit courses that are not part of program leading to a degree or diploma.

If you choose to later enter a degree or diploma program, open studies taken at Concordia may be credited.

Upon completion of 24 credits in the Open Studies program students can qualify for a "Graduate Certificate in Theological Studies"

Seminars and Workshops

Concordia also offers seminars and workshops to professional ministry staff and interested congregation members in Christian churches in a variety of topics presented by permanent and sessional faculty.

And now, our giggle for the week: jokes and puns

The church was badly in need of a coat of paint. So the pastor decided he'd do the job himself. But all he had was one bucket of paint. So he got a bunch of buckets and some water, and he thinned the paint enough to cover the entire church. Then he spent all day painting. That night it rained—very hard—and washed all the paint off. The pastor was quite discouraged and asked God, 'Why...why God, did you let it rain and wash off all my hard work?'

To which God thundered his reply, 'Repaint! Repaint! And thin no more!'
